

MyGov DOMESTIC TRAVEL POLICY

Ref No:	E-3079290/MG/19/2021-MyGov
Version:	1.0
Date of Issue:	21-Mar-2023
Effective Date:	21-Mar-2023
Document Owner:	Director, MyGov
Approved by:	CEO, MyGov

1. Applicability

All employees deputed at MyGov

2. General Principles

The following principles apply to business travel.

- i. All business travels should be approved by the Head of Line of Business in the format prescribed.
- ii. All expenditure incurred while on tour should be within the entitlement limits as defined in this Circular and in case of any deviation, employees shall obtain a special approval from the Head of Line of Business.

3. Classification of Cities

The cities in India are classified as shown in the following table, for the purpose of determination of limits on Stay Expenses and Daily Allowances admissible to employees while on tour.

Classification of Cities
CITY A: Ahmedabad Bangalore Calcutta Chennai Delhi Hyderabad Mumbai Pune All state capitals	CITY B: All other cities other than A-class cities

4. Authorization

The prior approval of the authorising manager in line with the approval matrix is a pre-requisite for Business Travel

Approval Matrix
LEVELS	Authorising Managers
All Levels	CEO MyGov

5. Mode of Travel

- i. Entitlements of mode of travel shall be as given below:

Band	Level	Entitlement
Executive	E1 & E2	Lowest Economy fare (Preferably by a Low-Cost Carrier/Budget Airline)
Junior Management	J1, J2 & J3	Normal Air Fare-Economy (Y) Class
Middle Management	M1, M2 & M3	-do-
Senior Management	S1, S2 & S3	-do-
CEO		Normal Air Fare-Business (J) Class

- ii. Employees are encouraged to avail Super Saver, Apex or any other schemes offered by various airlines, so as to incur the lowest expenditure.
- iii. On receiving the travel approval from the Authorising Manager, the resource can book the tickets as per entitlements
- iv. Preference will be given to low-cost carriers where special rates have been negotiated.
- v. E Tickets and Boarding Passes must be retained and attached to the reimbursement claim.
- vi. Ticket issued for business trips shall remain the property of the organisation.
- vii. Exchange of tickets for cash or for tickets of a lower value is an unacceptable conduct.

6. Other modes of travel:

Train Travel

- i. Resources are entitled to 2nd A/C train travel while undertaking a business Travel.
- ii. Train travel is the preferred mode if the journey to a particular destination is not scheduled to take more than 4-6 hours or can be concluded overnight. Air Travel is the preferred mode only in the event of non-availability of train route.

Road Travel

- i. A business travel can be undertaken by road where the distance between home and business destination does not exceed 200 kms, road routes are safe and travel time is short.
- ii. Prior written approval for road travel would be required in line with the approval matrix.
- iii. The resource may choose to drive his own vehicle, in which case he / she will be entitled to claim expenses @ Rs.10 per km.
- iv. Journey made through three wheelers (Auto rickshaw), motor bike etc., for short distances, would be at the prescribed & prevailing rates of auto rickshaw under that particular state/area.
- v. Journey made within the city by Uber/ Ola would be reimbursed as per actuals on submission of their receipt.

7. Stay Expenses:

- i. Stay Expenses include all expenses billed by the Hotel or Guest House except telephone calls and consumption or alcohol
- ii. The reimbursement will be at actual expenditure (supported by bills) or maximum entitlement whichever is less.
- iii. The maximum entitlement for Stay Expenses for employees traveling outstation is specified below:

Band/ Level	A Class city	B Class City
Executive (E1 & E2)	3500/-	3000/-
Junior Management (J1, J2 & J3)	5000/-	3500/-
Middle Management (M1, M2 & M3)	6000/-	4000/-
Senior Management (S1, S2 & S3)	8000/-	6000/-
CEO	10000/-	8000/-

In case the employee does not claim Stay Expenses. 100% extra DA shall be paid over the normal DA rate as specified at Section 8(vi).

Daily Allowance (DA)

- i. Daily Allowance is paid to employees only for outstation business travel in lieu of food expenses.
- ii. DA will be paid over and above the other entitlements
- iii. The employee is entitled to 50% D.A. in case of seminars/workshops/Training, where the organisers arrange for stay and food.

- iv. Entitlement is calculated from the scheduled time of departure of the plane/train, bus at the headquarters.
- v. A full day will be calculated as 24 hours and for any fraction of a day, the following scale will apply:

Period	DA Entitlement
Up to 12hrs	50% of DA
More than 12hrs	100% OF DA

- vi. The maximum DA entitlements are specified below:

Band	Level	For all cities
Executive	E1 & E2	500/-
Junior Management	J1, J2 & J3	800/-
Middle Management	M1, M2 & M3	900/-
Senior Management	S1, S2 & S3	1000/-
CEO		1200/-

9. Local travel for business purposes

- i. Local travel, both in-station and outstation is subject to the following entitlements:

Band	Level	Entitlement
Executive	E1, E2	Taxi
Junior Management	J1, J2, J3	AC Car (Indigo or Equivalent)
Middle Management	M1, M2, M3	-do-
Senior Management	S1, S2, S3	AC Car (SUV or Equivalent)
CEO		-do-

- ii. In case of travel by hired car (AC or Non-AC), the bills must be produced to claim the reimbursements.
- iii. Employees of the level of Middle Management and above are entitled to engage a car on a continuous basis as required during tour outside Head Quarters. All others are entitled to engage the car on a point-to-point basis.
- iv. Employees shall record the mileage travelled, on the trip sheet.
- v. In case more than 3 resources are travelling together, SUV or similar vehicle may be hired on need basis. The claim for this will be done on actuals

10. Travel Advance

- i. All employees are entitled to claim a Business Travel Advance equal to 90% of the indicative travel expense calculated based on their eligibility criteria
- ii. Employees should submit their travel claims within 10 working days after completing each tour.
- iii. Employees shall not be eligible for any further Travel Advance if they have not settled the account of their two previous business travels.
- iv. Employees who have drawn Travel Advance and fail to perform the approved Travel for any reason shall refund the advance drawn forthwith to MyGov failing which penal interest shall be leviable on the advance drawn. Similarly un-utilised portion of advance shall be remitted back to MyGov on return from Travel within 10 working days and thereafter interest shall be leviable on such un-utilised advance.