

MyGov LEAVE POLICY

Ref No:	E-3079290/MG/19/2021-MyGov
Version:	1.2
Date of Issue:	03-Dec-24
Effective Date:	03-Dec-24
Document Owner:	Director, MyGov
Approved by:	CEO, MyGov

1. Objective

The objective of this policy is to ensure that resources are able to balance personal and professional life without compromising business continuity and discipline.

2. Scope

The policy is applicable to all resources at MyGov.

3. Guidelines

- a) Leave entitlement and computation are linked to the calendar year i.e. from January 1 to December 31.
- b) Other than Maternity Leave, no leave can be claimed as a matter of right. It should be planned in advance in consultation with the manager in a manner that it does not impact the business adversely or disrupt the functioning of the Vertical.
- c) Leave can be refused, revoked, curtailed by the Department/ Ministry based on business exigencies.
- d) Resources are eligible to avail only casual / sick leave during the probation and sick leave during notice period.
- e) A resource can avail the following types of leave based on the need and reason of absence:
 - Earned Leave (EL)
 - Casual Leave (CL)

- Sick Leave (SL)
 - Maternity Leave
 - Paternity Leave
 - Half-Day Leave
- f) A resource can proceed for Earned leave only after approval by the concerned Department official.
- g) All resources are expected to apply for leave i.e. EL, SL, and CL etc.
- h) Apart from the permitted Leaves, a List of Holidays for the Calendar Year is also published by MyGov. These holidays are in addition to the permissible leaves.

4. Leave Benefits

(A) Earned Leave

Entitlement	15 days per year/prorated during the year of joining and separation. Earned Leave cannot be availed in advance. EL has to be accumulated first at the rate of 1.25 days per month of service before being availed.
Purpose	May be used for personal reasons
Process	Can be availed only with prior approval of the immediate manager. HR must be notified of the approval. Clubbing of Intervening holidays and weekends would be treated/counted towards leave. For instance, in case of leaves availed on Friday and Monday, it will be counted as 4 days leave. Intervening holidays will also be counted as leave. In case of leave availed on a Friday or Monday, it will be counted as 1 day leave.
Accumulation	A maximum of 10 Earned leaves can be carried forward to the next year by an employee. Total accumulation of EL on an employee's account is capped at 30 days. EL accumulation above 30 days will be considered as lapsed.
Encashment	Not eligible. In case of separation accumulated EL can be adjusted against unserved notice period, if any, with the approval of competent authority for extreme situations and the residual EL, if any, will lapse. Residual Leave, after such adjustment, will not be encashed on separation.

(B) Casual Leave

Entitlement	06 days per year – cannot be carried over or combined with any other leave. Is prorated during the year of joining and separation
Purpose	May be used for personal reasons
Process	Can be availed with prior intimation preferably. Intervening holidays and weekends are not treated / counted towards leave.
Encashment	Not eligible
Accumulation	No accumulation of CL is done.

(C) Sick Leave

Entitlement	06 days per year / prorated during the year of joining and separation
Purpose	May be used for medical reasons
Process	Can be availed for medical reasons. Intervening holidays and weekends are not treated as leave. Leave availed beyond three days requires a medical fitness certificate to be submitted.
Encashment	Not Applicable
Accumulation	Can be accumulated up to 25 days. All Sick Leave above 3 days will require a medical certificate.

(D) Maternity Leave

Eligibility	Provision of this leave are all governed by the Maternity Benefit conditions provided in Chapter 6 of the Code on Social Security 2020 of the Government of India. Employees are required to consult the Code for further details. All female resources who have worked at least for a period of 80 days or more in the twelve months preceding the date of expected delivery are eligible for maternity leave. The leave entitlement for a woman with one or no surviving children is 26 weeks, of which 8 weeks can be taken prior to delivery. For a woman with two or more surviving children maximum leave allowed is 12 weeks, of which 6 can be taken before delivery. Under the Code leave benefits of 12 weeks are allowed to women adopting a child below the age of 3 months or obtaining one through surrogacy. The Code also lays down leave entitlement in conditions of miscarriage and other health emergencies during pregnancy which will apply in case it is necessary.
--------------------	--

Process	Expectant mothers are to keep their Manager and HR informed about the date of delivery and plan their leave before and after the date accordingly.
Encashment	Maternity leave is a paid leave and encashment is not allowed
Accumulation	Accumulation of Maternity Leave is not permitted. In extraordinary circumstances MyGov may allow combining other leave for which the employee is eligible with ML and to extend the duration with prior approval of the competent authority provided the employee have sufficient or required leave balance.

(E) Paternity Leave

Eligibility	All male resources once in a fixed tenure up to a maximum of two occasions during the total engagement period. Paternity Leave is also admissible on valid adoption of a child below the age of one year.
Entitlement	Fifteen (15) working days
Purpose	Paternity leave can be availed within one month of delivery.
Process	Can be availed with prior approval of the immediate manager HR must be notified of the approval.
Extension	Not permitted
Encashment	Not permitted
Accumulation	Not permitted

(F) Half Day Leave

Half Day Leave	When applying for a half day leave a resource is required to spend a minimum of 4 business hours at office. Half day leave can be used from the balance in the Casual and Sick Leave categories first and then from Earned Leave. No separate entitlement in days is available for Half Day Leave.
-----------------------	--

(G) Others:

Absence from work/No Leave Balance	Absence from work without approval will be treated as leave In case a resource does not have any leave in his/her balance, the entire leave period will be treated as Unpaid Leaves (including holidays). The same period will be treated as leave without pay and will warrant salary deduction.
Bandh, Voting, Security reasons	On the request from the affected resources/Suo Moto the HR may issue a special advisory. Such periods will be treated as special casual leave.
Others	A resource will be eligible for leave proportionate to the period of service computed from the date of joining. In the event of separation, all forms of Leave that accrue on an annual basis will be computed on a pro-rata basis.

5. Exceptions/Modifications

Any exceptions to this policy would require prior approval of CEO of MyGov.

The policy may be revised / modified from time to time.