- f) If the decision is to retain the resource the HR along with the department will initiate and conclude the discussion on the possible options with the resource.

g) Subject to the outcome of this discussion, the resource may opt for a "Withdrawal of resignation request" or continue with the resignation process.

3.3 Superannuation

A resource may separate from the organization on attaining the age of superannuation, which is currently 60 years. The date of separation from the organization in such cases will be the date on which the employee completes 60 years of age. All separation formalities as described in this policy will be followed for employees separating due to superannuation.

3.4 Others: Death

On account of death of the resource,

- a) The HR will initiate and conclude all formalities required for the full and final settlement on behalf of the resource, in accordance with this policy.
- b) All payable dues will be made to the declared nominee(s) of the resource.

- b) The resource is expected to serve the notice period in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract.

c) Any request for curtailing notice period in an extreme situation by an employee will require the approval of CEO, MyGov.

d) In case the employee does not report to work while on notice period, then the organization reserves the right to recover notice period dues by adjusting leaves if any as per the Leave Policy.
